Covid – Guidance and advice provided by www.gov.uk and www.resourcecentre.org.uk

Exercise, sport and physical activity

You can do unlimited exercise but there are limits on the number of people you can exercise with. You can exercise in a group of up to 30 people when outdoors. When indoors, you can exercise:

- on your own
- in a group of up to 6 people
- in a larger group of any size from up to 2 households (and their support bubbles, if eligible)

You can also take part in formally organised indoor and outdoor sports or licensed physical activity with any number of people. This must be organised by a business, charity or public body and the organiser must take the required precautions, including the completion of a risk assessment. You should avoid contact in training and, for some sports, avoid contact in all activities

Conditions of lockdown are subject to change, please check for any updates.

We are currently at stage 3 of the plan, which began on 17th May. This means the following activities are now permitted:

- After-school clubs for vulnerable children (indoors or outdoors)
 - Outdoor organised sports
 - Parents and children groups (up to 30, not counting children aged 5 and under), indoors or outdoors
 - After-school clubs for all children, outdoors
 - Community Centres allowed to open. There is specific government guidance for community facilities
 - Outdoors – gatherings up to 30 people
 - Indoors – gatherings up to 6 people (or 2 households)
 - Indoor adult group sports and exercise classes
- COVID-Secure guidance remains in place for all activities.

The government is assessing the situation and will announce the timing of further relaxations. At the moment, these are planned to take place no earlier than 19th July.

Exemptions to Covid restrictions

Even where activities remain restricted, there are some specific exemptions, which mean your group may be able to organise larger group activities. The general rules for Covid-safe activities still apply.

The relevant exemptions are:

Voluntary or charitable services

- Providing care or assistance
- Support groups
- Childcare, children’s activities and youth work
- Children under school age or people dependent on round-the-clock care
- Protests

Voluntary or charitable services

Gatherings above the limit of 6 people or 2 households indoors, or above 30 people outdoors can take place for the purposes of providing voluntary or charitable services.

W.I Hall Hirers Guide

The WI Hall currently remains in the ownership of the Bridport WI, the Women's Institute Hall Trust. Bridport Town Council have agreed to take on the management of the hall and its bookings until such time that it is transferred to the ownership of Bridport Town Council.

We ask all hirers to adhere to all Bridport Town Council's Terms & Conditions as follows; these have been agreed by the WI Hall trust.

Hall Booking Enquiries:

Terri Foxwell, Bridport Tourist Information Centre
01308 424901, terri.foxwell@bridport-tc.gov.uk

Provisional bookings can be made over the phone, but to confirm, a booking form must be completed and returned. Only then will a booking confirmation be issued if your application is accepted.

Bridport Citizens` Charter General Rights & Duties

As a human being we have certain rights and freedoms. In return, we are responsible for upholding the rights and freedom of all other human beings, and engaging, as far as able, in activities that promote the wellbeing of everyone within the town of Bridport and the wider community. As a community we expect our elected representatives to honour these rights and responsibilities.

5 KEY PRINCIPAL RIGHTS & RESPONSIBILITIES

1 FREEDOM OF BELIEF, THOUGHT & EXPRESSION

We have the right to make up our own minds, think and believe what we like, express our thoughts freely and discuss our thoughts with other people.

We are all responsible for respecting the ideology, thoughts and feelings of other people and defending their right to express them within the limits of the law. We have a right to safe and public spaces where people can speak and share ideas freely and with respect.

2 DEMOCRACY & ACCESS TO PUBLIC SERVICES

We have the right to fully participate in local and national government and have equal access to all public services.

We are all responsible for actively engaging in the democratic process to ensure freedom of speech, and that all public services which uphold the dignity and safety of all our citizens are not denied or restricted unfairly.

We also have responsibility to hold elected representatives to account where they fail in their responsibilities.

3 PERSONAL & COMMUNITY SECURITY

We all have the right to a safe, warm, dry home, economic security and access to health and social care and live in a safe environment. We have a right to expect that the government will secure our country and our communities. We have a right to learn and maximize our personal potential.

We have a responsibility for our own and any dependents' health and education by making responsible choices, but are also responsible for paying our taxes to ensure that local and national resources are available to deliver those essential services.

4 PERSONAL & COMMUNITY CULTURE

We have the right to access, and freely participate in, the cultural life of the wider community and to protect and celebrate cultural differences within it.

We have the responsibility, therefore, to honor other peoples' culture. We are also responsible for respecting copyright and intellectual rights of those who create literature, music etc.

5 ENVIRONMENT

We all have the right of access to sufficient of the Earth's resources, but no more than to maintain the above rights.

We are responsible for not wasting natural resources, being aware of our carbon footprint and the consequences of our actions on the environment and natural community.
